(From a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

ALBANY, March 11 .- That the ities will eventually get home rule and that Gov. Miller favors it was made evident in a talk with the Gov ernor this morning. A proposition has been made, according to his ur derstanding, that in view of the number of home rule bills which have been introduced, no two of which are alike, a commission be created to pre pare a home rule constitutional pro vision that will give further home rule to the cities. When asked if such a proposal had is approval, he said that he would have no occasion to pass on it. But he continued, "I think it is a matter o important that they should not take any half-baked proposal and put t into an amendment. The way to get a sound amendment is to select people who will give it very serious tudy and have one prepared."

John T. Brunen, Promoter of Public and Private Entertainments, Killed by Man Who Came in Auto.

Widely Known by Young Women-Los Angeles's Interest Stirred by News of the Killing.

CAMDEN, March 11 -- John T. Brunen, who made a business of enraging actors and was murdered in his home at Riverside, near here, last night under circumstances that suggest to the police the hard work which came to the New York police after the murder of Joseph B. Elwell and to the Los Angeles and Hollywood police after the killing of William Desmond

Taylor, the moving picture director. Mr. Brunen's body was found on the floor of the kitchen of his home He had apparently been reading at the kitchen table. A full load of birdshot had been fired into the top of his neck, tearing away the base of the brain

Neighbors told the detectives that an automobile stopped in front of Brunen's home last evening. Three men got out and one entered the house. He returned in a few monents, re-entered the car with the bus line complained of was others and drove away. No unusual sound was heard while he was in the

No one noted the number of the car. though the police have a fairly close description of the man who was seen

o come out of the house. Brunen had a large acquaintance among entertainers, including young vemen who were always on the ragged edge of real theatrical engagements and hoped to attain them through the opportunities they got through him.

Mrs. Brunen's mother and the slain man's daughter had left the house only a few minutes before the shoot-In July, 1920, the Brunen home was entered by two men who held up Mrs. Brunen and robbed the place of jewelry and money. According to Burlington County authorities to-day the descriptions of the two men reemble those of two of three men seen by neighbors to park a motor car near he Brunen home last night before the shooting. County detectives said that Brunen was identified with a group of well known gamblers in Baltimore about we yours ago. A dispute arose between Brunen and some of the camblers, and shortly after his home as robbed under peculiar circumtances which detectives believed inicated the rabbox was perpetrated

Neighbors of the murdered man in Riverside said Brunen had engaged in a vestent quarrel in the house hast Christmas Day and that several shots came from or where it headed later. Mrs. Bennen was in a state of colapse and was unable to give any information to the police.

LOS ANGELES, Murch 11 - News the murder at Camden, N. J., of din T. Bruner, close friend of Willim Desmond Taylor, under circumtances similar to those in the death Taylor, created a profound stir here to-day. The possibility that thronen met his death by the same mysterious agency that killed Taylor was discussed everywhere.
